MEET THE MMAE FAMILY

Anita Baron and Alan Levin have been married for 36 years and have been members of MMAE for 10 years. Anita and her family were members of the Liberty Jewish Center back in the sixties. They have two children, Gabrielle and Ethan. Alan is a sales professional, funeral assistant for Sol Levinson's Funeral Home, and a pianist at Vinny's Café in Highlandtown. He also plays for private parties and events. He is a veteran business owner, employee, and author. Anita is the founder and owner of Baron Business Lending for commercial loans, an actress who has appeared in numerous films, commercials, and TV dramas, is an Uber Driver and has her own transportation company called Baron Rides. Alan likes the Ner Tamid, the MMAE professional staff, and the member that emanates continually a "loving welcome" to all and embrace benevolently those who enter our shul. He has become a part of this warm MMAE family which helps reinforce his faith in our Creator. Anita says, "What's not to like? MMAE is our second home."

SAFETY INFORMATION - For your safety and the safety of everyone in our shul, please note the closest exits to be used in the event of an emergency.

Emergency exits are indicated by lighted green EXIT signs.

EXIT

The United Hebrew Cemetery, associated with MMAE, wants to help with pre-planning and burial plots. Plots are $800, but MMAE members receive a discounted price. Contact Larry Dobres at 410-526-6527.

Our member, Ron Mukamal, was the guest speaker at a breakfast meeting on Sunday, March 11th, before the Jewish War Veterans Shaarei Zion Memorial Post #888. Ron, a Mizrahi Jew, born in Bagdad, Iraq, spoke about how his family lived in an Arab, Moslem, and Christian country before coming to the United States in 1952. Ron also spoke of his military career as a major in the USAF as a surgeon and then as a civilian living in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina before he and his wife moved to Baltimore. Other Post members that attended were Irv Lustman, Ruby Sugarman, and Richard and Sheila Cohen.
